

SINGLE-STAGE BREAST RECONSTRUCTION

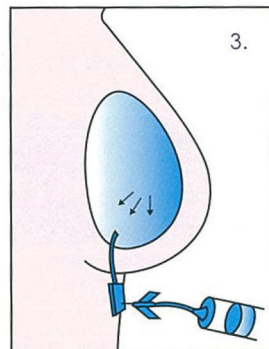

Expansion Procedure with BECKER™ or SPECTRUM™ Adjustable Breast Implants

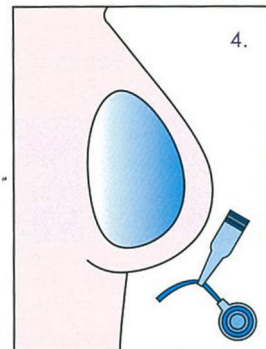

The expander/breast implant is placed in position.

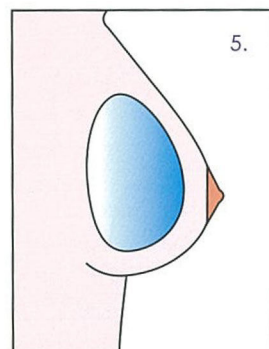

It is then expanded by injecting saline through the dome for up to 6 months.

Final volume is achieved.

The dome is then removed in an office procedure.

Nipple reconstruction is performed and final result is achieved.

BECKER™
Expander/ Breast Implants